

Volunteer Application Form

Brogdale Collections is a charity working to provide access to and education about the National Fruit Collection. It was established as a charity to work with the curator chosen by DEFRA. Brogdale Collections has managed visitor access to the NFC in partnership with the University of Reading, since the start of their curation in 2008. The Charity offers a range of opportunities for the public to use The Collection as an educational resource including Daily Guided Tours, Fruit Fairs, Festivals and Key Stage 1 & 2 Education Days.
